

The Indiana Privacy Law has made a HUGE difference in the phone calls I receive. I now enjoy answering the phone because I no longer fear that there will be a telemarketer on the other end.

Also, my phone rings at least 50% less. I enjoy this very much.

I do not want to see the FCC implement a proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.